

Hum 709: Human Psychology and Environment
2 Credit Hours.
2 hrs. per week.

Introduction to Psychology; Sensation and Perception; Motivation, Conflict, Frustration, and Emotion; Learning; Memory and Forgetting; Intelligence and Creativity; Personality; Language, thinking and problem solving; Introduction to Environmental Psychology; Environmental Perception and Cognition; Theories of Environment Behaviour Relations; Environmental Stress; Noise; Personal Space and Territoriality; High Density and Crowding: The City; Architecture, Design and Engineering for Human Behaviour, Design in Residential and Institutional Environments; Work, Learning and Leisure Environments; Changing Behaviour to Save the Environment